

Presentation Sessions

Ed Hearn - “Motivate and Inspire” - This class will teach you how to motivate and inspire anyone. Whether you are delivering the winning international speech, coaching club officers and members, or merely speaking to someone in passing, Ed will share tips that helped him achieve the winning title, 2006 World Champion of Public Speaking.

Sporty King – “CC Your Way to Winning Speeches” - Sporty King, ATM-B will demonstrate and discuss the fact that all you really need is your Competent Communication Manual and skills to build a successful and powerful message every time you speak.

Bryce D. Word – “Tackling Table Topics” - Bryce will show you how to take the fear out of table topics by sharing tips he implements while speaking extemporaneously that helped him to land the winning Title of District Table Topics Champion in 2007.

Bill Funchion – “From Mind to Paper - A Speechwriter at Work” Bill will walk you through the speech writing process from start to finish. Make writing speeches easier by following the process of discovering, organizing, drafting, and then revising and editing. Make writing stories easier by understanding the five parts of plot structure. Bill has served as a coach to previous district champions and can give you tips to make you too a champion.

Kim Taylor – “Networking Naturally – Adding Value to Every Interaction” – In this seminar, Kim will enable participants to understand the mutual value exchange; lose their fear / dislike of networking; adopt a new perspective about networking; learn the art of mingling and moving; and leverage alternative sources of networking.

Jason Akai – “Perfect Parliamentary Procedures” - Jason will share guidelines governing meetings and following proper protocol. In this seminar, you will learn how to conduct an orderly business meeting and how to effectively convey messages to your executive council and members at large using the Robert’s Rules of Order.
